With the passion of its teachers for yoga and travel Peak Beings has partnered with yoga teachers around the world to create yoga retreats that combine travel and the experience of yoga in beautiful natural environments. Each of our yoga retreats visits different locations, from tranquil beach and mountain destinations to adventure filled locations with enough to satisfy the thrill seeker in you. Our registered yoga teachers and have traveled the world on many different adventures. Peak Beings' retreats provide a safe and timely experience for every individual who decides to take the time to explore yoga and their relationship with the world. We welcome beginner to advanced yoga practitioners on all of our trips and all classes are guided to deepen all levels and styles of practices.
